West Raleigh, N. C., October 17.—
One of the most enjoyable entertainments in the history of the Agricultural and Mechanical College Y. M.
C. A. was given on the college campus Saturday night. A great many young women visitors from Raleigh and from the various girls' colleges were present.

At a recent meeting of the freshman class, permanent officers for this year were elected as follows: President, W. T. Shaw, of Weldon; Vice-President, L. L. Merritt, of Wilmington; Secretary and Treasurer, R. E. Stevens, of Goldsboro.

The College Glee Club and Orchestra has been organization of an orchestra has been organization of an orchestra has been attempted at Agricultural and Mechanical, but with the great number of talented musiclans in college, the success of the undertaking is assured.

The first dress parade of the present session and the first under the new commandant, Captain W. G. Peace, of the Coast Artillery Corps of the United States Army, was held on the college campus last Monday, and from every standpoint was highly creditable to the battalion. The full dress parade and review of the battalion, which has been one of the most attractive features of the State Fair for several years past, will be held in the Fair, Grounds Wednesday afternoon.

Basketball practice under the direction of Munager W. H. Davis and Assistant Manager P. B. Ferebee was started on the old athletic field Saturday afternoon, there being nearly fifty men out for practice. It is believed that by starting practice this early more interest will be stimulated in this game, and that A. & M. will have it a thoroughly trained squad by the time the season opens after Christings.
